

Addams Family Theatre Contract

Student Initials	Parent Initials	Agreement
		Cast members are required to attend all rehearsals (except when your character is not called or you have an excused absence). Please make any special arrangements or accommodations needed for scheduling with the Director prior to casting.
		Cast members will not miss any rehearsals during production week.
		Cast members will not miss any shows.
		In case of illness, parent will call or email CSP in advance of the affected rehearsal.
		All children who audition will be cast in the show unless they have an unreasonable number of conflicts.
		Cast members are asked to indicate on the Audition Information form if they will accept any role. If they decline, there is a possibility that they may not be cast in the show. If you are auditioning for only a particular role, you will still need to pay a $50 non-refundable audition fee.
		I understand that a $280.00 tuition fee is due before auditions and that children who audition and are cast in the show are not eligible for a refund. Payment plans and/or scholarship arrangements must be made prior to being cast in the show.
		I understand that I need to provide a $75 refundable volunteer deposit check to CSP at auditions.
		I will be responsible for my child's personal items (i.e., shoes, tights, makeup).
		I will attend one parent meeting.
		I will volunteer for a minimum of two rehearsals and two shows during production week or opt out by paying the $75 volunteer fee.
		I will sell a minimum of 10 tickets to public performances per child in the show.
		Cast members are expected to act respectfully to the Artistic team, Board members, other cast members, and parent helpers. Inappropriate behavior may result in dismissal from the show.
		Cast members are expected to act respectfully to other cast members during rehearsals and while interacting online (via social media and/or texting).
		Cell phones and/or digital devices will remain off the rehearsal floor and stage (unless being used for recording singing rehearsals).
		CSP will send weekly emails with rehearsal schedule updates and any other important show information. I will read these emails in their entirety.
		By signing below you have stated that you have read and agreed to the policies stated above.
